Fall is Here: Christ is Here*

The Fall season is upon us and the presence of Christ is all around. I have only been here 2 months and received so much love that I know "surely the presence of the Lord is in this place." My oldest son from Atlanta had an opportunity to visit and talked about how he felt welcomed. What wonderful examples of God's love and kindness.

The greatest example of God's love has been shown in the ministry of giving. During a meeting with the Young At Heart Ministry, Barbara Nunnally expressed wanting a place to give her deceased husband's clothes away. She was sincere about blessing others with his clothes. I remembered that Virginia State University needed clothes for their new clothes closet, which was developed by the students. The students needed business attire for interviews and formal events, so a closet was created. I told Barbara about this non-profit store for the students, and her response was quick. She met me with several suits, shoes, and formal wear to donate to the student's clothes closet. The place has the name, "Dream it Real Closets." She has made the dreams of many students come to life.

The Bible says, "We are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them." (Ephesians 2:10) Yes, Christ is all around us because he is in every one of us. So, during this Fall season, be a do-gooder like Christ and others will know that we are Christians by our love.

Finance Committee Report

Saint Luke's Family, as your finance committee chair part of my responsibilities are to keep you informed about our church's financial standing.

As is always the case, the summer is our slowest season of the year for financial giving. Right now we need your help to meet our ongoing monthly expenses including utilities, staff salaries, and other routine expenses.

If you've fallen behind on meeting your estimated giving now would be a great time to catch up. Besides a check you can always make a contribution using the Give button at <https://www.stlukesrva.org/index.html>.

Thank you in advance for all you do for St. Luke's and those we serve.

Yours in Christ.
Bill Brown
